

Press Release

Date: Wednesday 24 December 2008

Subject: UNDP UAE organizes a training workshop on Gender Mainstreaming in the Northern Emirates-Ajman

--BEGIN--

UNDP UAE, and in cooperation with the Umm Al Moumineen Association – Ajman, is organizing a training workshop in Ajman, UAE on Gender Mainstreaming in the Northern Emirates.

The training workshop, which extends for 2 days, is part of the initiative to assist the Umm Al Moumineen foundation on concentrating its efforts on the establishment of a comprehensive gender mainstreaming programme to effectively achieve its gender development objectives.

Social workers will attend the training which aims to build their capacities in Ajman and neighboring northern emirates through general gender development training , taking into consideration the realities of the Gulf traditions, enabling the participants to become more aware of relevant gender related issues to facilitate the incorporation of a gender perspective in the creation of strategies for change, as well as, gain proficiency in how to engender programmes, regulations and activities within their organizations.

--END—